3. You must not unlawfully use any controlled substance, including marijuana, and must submit to one drug test within 15 days of the beginning of supervision and 2 periodic tests after that for use of a controlled substance.
4. You must cooperate with the probation officer with respect to the collection of DNA.
5. You must report in person to the probation office, in the district which you are released, within 72 hours of release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons. You must report to the probation officer in the manner and as frequently as the court or the probation officer directs; and you must notify the probation officer within 48 hours of any change in residence, and within 72 hours of being arrested or questioned by a police officer.
6. You must not travel knowingly outside the federal judicial district without the permission of the court. Alternatively, the probation officer will grant such permission when doing so will reasonably assure the probation officer's knowledge of your whereabouts and that travel will not hinder your rehabilitation or present a public safety risk.
7. You must truthfully answer any inquiry by the probation officer and must follow the instruction of the probation officer pertaining to your supervision and conditions of supervision. This condition does not prevent you from invoking the Fifth Amendment privilege against self-incrimination.
8. You must permit a probation officer to meet at your home or any other reasonable location and must permit confiscation of any contraband the probation officer observes in plain view. The probation officer will not conduct such a visit between the hours of 11:00 p.m. and 7:00 a.m. without specific reason to believe a visit during those hours would reveal information or contraband that wouldn't be revealed through a visit during regular hours.
9. You must not meet, communicate, or otherwise interact with persons whom you know to be engaged or planning to be engaged in criminal activity.
10. You must not possess a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or any other dangerous weapon (meaning an instrument designed to be used as a weapon and capable of causing death or serious bodily harm).

rehabilitation, to enable the probation officer to assist defendant in managing the defendant's finances, and to ensure that defendant is meeting court ordered financial obligations.

14. Unless an assessment at the time of release from imprisonment or commencement of probation indicates to the court that participation is unnecessary, you must participate in a mental health treatment program or aftercare program. The court will receive notification of such assessment. You must abide by all treatment program requirements and restrictions, consistent with the conditions of the treatment provider. At the request of a treatment provider, probation officer, or you, the court may revise these conditions. While under supervision, you must not consume alcoholic beverages. You must pay all or a part of the costs for participation in the program, not to exceed the sliding fee scale as established by the Department of Health and Human Services and adopted by this court. Failure to pay these costs will not be grounds for revocation unless the failure is willful.
15. You must pay restitution to the United States District Court Clerk's Office, South Bend, Indiana, which will be due immediately, to be disbursed to the victims in the amounts referenced in Paragraph 118, as modified on the record. You must commence restitution payments in the manner and schedule as determined by the court. The imposed payment schedule will remain in effect until such time as the court is notified by you, the victims, or government that there has been a material change in your ability to pay. Restitution will be paid at a minimum rate of $250.00 per month commencing 30 days after placement on supervision until said amount is paid in full.
